Verbs Followed by the Infinitive

Use the infinitive (to + base form) after certain verbs, like decide, forget, need, plan, remember, want, and would like.

Albert plans to start college next year.
Don’t forget to call me tomorrow.
He wants to study computer technology.
He would like to work in a computer store.